

Youth Speakout

Calling all Tasmanian Secondary Students aged 12 – 18, here is your opportunity to have a say about reconciliation.

Reconciliation Tasmania wants young people to know their history and use their knowledge to create new ideas and ways of working together.

Students from around the State will be selected to present their entries at Parliament House, in Hobart, and to attend a reception with Her Excellency the Honourable Kate Warner, AC, Governor of Tasmania.

Registration will be online in early 2019. More information will be available on the Reconciliation Tasmania website:
www.rectas.com.au

You choose
how you enter:

- A poem
- Short video
- Speech
- Art piece
- Musical performance

“Growing up as a child with Tasmanian Aboriginal heritage, I have always been fascinated by Aboriginal culture. Jewellery made with shells is well-known and has been an unbroken cultural tradition shared by Aboriginal women and continues to be performed today.”

Photograph by Taylah Pickett, an entrant in Youth Speakout 2018.