

COME WALK WITH US

Workshop Information

HOSTED BY

This 3-4 hour innovative and hands on workshop takes participants through the timeline of colonisation and the historical and continuing effects of government policies on Tasmanian Aboriginal people and their communities.

Content

This introductory workshop covers topics and themes including:

- Tasmanian Aboriginal life before and after colonisation
- Impacts of past policies on health and well-being
- Identity and appropriate language.

Inclusions

- A pre-workshop consultation to review objectives and other details
- Workbook and certificate for each participant
- Collation of workshop feedback
- Resources for further learning
- Debriefing follow up from Reconciliation Tasmania.

Pricing 2024 - 2025

$150 plus GST per person, group of 9 – 18

$120 plus GST per person, group of 18 - 36

- Our fees don't include travel or accommodation expenses (if applicable). Where possible we provide facilitators based in your area.
- Any travel expenses are charged at cost, calculated using the ATO approved rate per km (88 cents per km in 2024-25). If an overnight stay is required – including where this is necessary for safety reasons to avoid facilitators driving before 7.30am or after 7.30pm – accommodation expenses are charged at cost. This includes the cost of meals (up to $50 per meal; not including alcoholic beverages).
- Once CWWU dates and locations are confirmed, an estimate is provided of applicable travel and accommodation expenses. Copies of receipts for accommodation and meals can be provided on request.

Evaluation

All participants will be asked to complete a short evaluation form after the workshop. Responses will be collated and provided to the organisation.

Outcomes

- Greater awareness and understanding of Aboriginal history in Tasmania
- Deeper understanding of what has happened to Tasmanian Aboriginal people through history and how this impacts on the way Tasmanian Aboriginal people engage with others now
- Insight into the ongoing trauma of the Stolen Generations
- Motivation to learn more about Tasmanian Aboriginal people.

For enquiries or to register, please contact:
info@rectas.com.au